

MORNING APPEAL.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1894.

STOCKS.

The market opened yesterday with a firm tendency and with a disposition to improve prices. Between sessions the market remained firm at the rates ruling in the previous session. In the regular session the market was strong at slightly advanced rates. Belcher closed at 6, Crown Point 3 1/2, Mexican 14 1/2, Ophir 18 1/2, Potosi 4 1/2, Sierra Nevada 21, Union Con. 36 1/2.

Well posted operators state that a much more healthy feeling is beginning to be manifested in the market than has been observed for a long time. The advent of the season when the valuable mines of the various outside districts can be opened and prospected, the vigorous prospecting and excellent indications on the Comstock, the subsidence of mischievous agitation, and the near approach of the adjournment of the Legislature, all tend to improve the tenor of the stock market by reviving confidence in moneyed and business circles.

Assessments—Iowa, 7 cents; Maryland Con. (Bodie), 25 cents; Blackhawk (Bodie), 25 cents.

JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT.—In the case of Fall vs. the Ward Mining Company, called in the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday, there was no one appearing for the plaintiff, and the judgment was given for the defendants by default. The widow of Fall sued the company for $10,000 for her husband, who was killed some months ago in the mine.

THE BRIC-A-BRAC CLUB.

ITS FIRST MEETING LAST NIGHT—GEORGE TUFFY ELECTED PRESIDENT—AN INTERESTING COLLECTION OF RELICS.

Last evening at 8 o'clock the first meeting of the Bric-a-brac Club of this city was held in Justice Cary's Court-room. There were present about fifteen people who were anxious to become members of the organization. On motion of J. F. Farrell, one of the prime movers of the Club, George Tuffy, of the Savings Bank was called to the chair, the chair being well braced up before he assumed the responsibility of sitting in it.

THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS.

President Tuffy as soon as the applause following his successful seating subsided, rose with a labored effort and inquired if there were any objections to his indulging in a few remarks. There being no objection raised he stated that the club had no political significance and that none of the bitter journalism usually indulged in by clubs of a similar character would be permitted. It would be small but live. Here the speech he had written on a postal card got mixed up with a small news paper which he had in his watch pocket he recovered from his embarrassment and proceeded to state that as he understood it, the club was formed for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of old pots, fragments of historic earthenware and articles of virtue, and rare souvenirs of curious things generally. Everybody was expected to contribute.

A HISTORIC BEER MUG.

Here the speaker laid on the desk in front of him a beer mug with a stout handle on the side. It was capable of holding about two quarts and the speaker stated that it had been used by his grandfathers, who one hundred years ago could empty it without removing the rim from his lips. (Here several members of the Reform Club withdrew hastily from the room and asked that their names be stricken from the roll.) Without noticing the exodus the speaker continued to explain the beauties of the mug while the rest of the Club were absorbed in attention. Presently Mr. Charles Laughton rose to ask if the mug was broken or scarred in any way. Receiving the assurance that it was intact he stated that a mug one hundred years old and unbroken hardly came under the head of bric-a-brac, he thought it ought to be busted. Mr. Tuffy grasped the mug in his brawny right hand and launched it at the head of the speaker. It struck the wall and was reduced to fragments. Mr. Laughton expressed himself satisfied and George Chesley swept up the fragments, numbered them carefully from 1 to 5634 and placed them in the club's cabinet.

CAPT. LYONS' CONTRIBUTION.

Capt. Lyons here brought forward a brick, laid it upon the table, and announced that it was a portion of the house occupied at one time by William Shakespeare, the Bard of Avon. There was a general rush to see this interesting relic, and Mr. Tuffy noticing that it was whole shouted, "break the corner off," and threw up his hands fearing that the Captain would treat the brick as he had treated the mug. Mr. John Mack, who is a hard student of Shakespeare, called the Captain's attention to the fact that Shakespeare occupied a wooden house and the brick was therefore a fraud. The Captain adjusted his Gdway's, and glaring at Mr. Mack explained, that it was kept to heat and put at his feet on cold nights, and to hurl at cats in the back yard. Mr. Mack subsided with a melodramatic gesture and the brick was placed on fire.

MINOR CONTRIBUTIONS.

George Sharp, of the Ormsby House, contributed a club which the landlord of the Old Boar's Head Tavern used to belabor delinquent guests with in ye olden time. There was hair and blood on the large end which was recognised by Mr. Chesley as having once belonged to Ben. Johnson.

Mr. Small, of the Arlington, was equally prompt in contributing a carpet tack from the same famous hostelry.

H. M. Yerington exhibited a pass issued by the Jerusalem and Jappa railway. It was countersigned by Herod, punched by Judas Iscariot and issued in favor of the editor of the Palestine Times. Several of the members here arose, and while admitting that the pass was a rarity, said that it was no more so than annual passes over the V. & T. for 1880. If one of the latter description could be obtained they thought the club ought to have it. Mr. Yerington in a neat speech explained that but few had been printed this year, as the man who printed them had, after executing half a dozen, died. He believed the editor of the APPEAL had one and might be induced to part with it for a consideration.

Mr. Chesley then attempted to ring in a vase dug up in Athens and inscribed in Greek Rock and Rye. The deception was exposed by Buck Zabriskie, and Mr. Chesley was fined a dozen bottles amid a chorus of coughs from all sides.

Gillhooley here appeared at the door and begged to be admitted. When asked by the President if he had any article of virtue with him he retreated hastily covered with blushes and confusion. His sudden decamping was attributed to a defective knowledge of the English language. A pair of old brogans worn by R. M. Daggett when he walked across the plains were contributed by Otto Greenwood. Bonnet worn by Susan B. Anthony at the siege of Troy. Anonymous Bill for room rent and gas, by Justice Cary. The relic was placed in the cabinet and the club hastily dispersed.

BRIEF MENTION.

No passengers came in on yesterday's southern stage.

J. C. Tudman, of Silver City, is in Carson visiting his uncle.

Many of our local nimrods are gravitating in the direction of Genoa.

The case of McFadden vs. Babcock will come up in the District Court to-day.

There are uncalled for messages at the telegraph office for E. C. Baldwin and Lizzie Dorsey.

The Au Fait party, given at the Opera House last night, was a well attended and enjoyable affair.

The Carson Times, a new morning daily edited and published by Edward Niles, made its appearance yesterday.

Mr. William Mann left for Auburn, California, last night, he having received the intelligence that his sister was seriously ill.

J. Smith, the negro arrested by officer Hawthorne for a burglary committed in Reno, was taken to the Washoe county jail last night.

Flower seeds are beginning to be in demand with sanguine horticulturists. If planted immediately they will be in time for the next cold snap.

The Carson Guards are getting in fine trim for the coming season. They propose to be the best drilled company in the State, and have an eye on all the picnic medals.

The fact of a Carson poet calling at Fox's and purchasing twelve quires of fools cap and a gross of pens is the most unmistakable sign yet seen that spring is not far off.

There is a power in faith, but no religion on earth is strong enough to brace a man when he steps on a hoop and it flies up and hits him on the shins. No matter how high he stands in church, his blasphemy can be heard two blocks.

It is a very interesting sight to see a ninety-pound Chinese domestic grab a broom and evict a party of Washoe Indians who have started a poker game on the sunny side of the fence which bounds the back yard. The Indians run like sheep, although not one of the crowd weighs less than 200 pounds.

DIVIDING THE SPOILS.—AN ANONYMOUS PARTY LEFT A BRACE OF DUCKS AND A HALF DOZEN JUICY QUAIL ON THE APPEAL TABLE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON WHEN EVERYBODY WAS OUT AT DINNER. THERE WAS NO CLUE TO THE DONOR, BUT THE BIRDS LOOKED AS IF THEY WOULD FIND FAVOR AT THE TABLE IF STUFFED IN THE PROPER STYLE. THE MAN WHO DOES NOT LET HIS RIGHT HAND KNOW WHAT HIS LEFT HAND DOETH IN THE WAY OF CHARITY IS A RARE PERSON IN THIS COUNTRY. THE APPEAL, AFTER MANY YEARS CAREFUL STUDY OF THE FRAILTIES OF HUMAN NATURE, ITS WEAKNESSES AND VANITIES, IS INEVITABLY LED TO CONCLUDE THAT THE MAN STOLE THE GAME AND LEFT IT AT THE OFFICE TO QUIET THE THROES OF A GUILTY CONSCIENCE. OTHERWISE HE WOULD HAVE LEFT HIS NAME IN LARGE LETTERS ON A CARD AND STUCK THE SAME IN THE DUCK'S BILL. THIS, HOWEVER, DOES NOT IN THE SLIGHTEST DEGREE LESSEN THE THANKFULNESS WHICH SWELLS OUR BOSOM AND MORE CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE SAME DISCRIMINATING THIEF WILL BE TAKEN AT THIS OFFICE IN EXCHANGE FOR THIS NOTICE.

THE POWDER SUIT.—The case of the Giant Powder Co. vs. Reinhardt was concluded in the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday. It appeared that some two years ago the Powder company sold a quantity of powder to some parties in Elko who soon afterwards went into bankruptcy and turned the powder over to Reinhardt. The plaintiffs held that the powder was not sold but consigned, and on this point suit was brought. The Court instructed the jury to consider the property in dispute as simply consigned, and the plaintiffs got a verdict of $860 and costs.

THE REFORM CLUB.—On to-morrow evening the Reform Club will give another dramatic entertainment on which occasion a bill combining the elements of extraordinary interest, will be presented. The local barlesque by W. S. Byrne, which created such a sensation on the occasion of its first production, will be repeated with some new hits and an entire change of scenery. Mrs. Byrne, who was in the cast, will not appear on account of the recent death of her brother, but the role will be placed in competent hands.

DEATH OF E. H. DRAKE.—Edgar H. Drake, the eldest brother of Mrs. W. S. Byrne of this city, died in San Francisco on the 16th inst. and was buried yesterday. The deceased visited Carson last summer and his death will be keenly regretted by the many friends he made here. He also leaves another sister, Mrs. Edward Hallet, of San Francisco, and two brothers who also reside in California.

GOT THE WRONG SHEEP.—A case entitled Buckley vs. Winters was tried in the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday which presented some rather curious features. It appears that Winters had a judgment against a man which he attempted to satisfy by levying on Buckley's sheep, supposing them to belong to the other party. Buckley recovered in full for the sheep.

DEPARTURES.—The following persons were passengers on the southern-bound stage yesterday: Mrs. M. Peterson, M. Ford, A. H. Kaplan, Mrs. Connors, M. Henry, Mrs. Sherer, J. C. Hagerman, James Aylward, A. Y. Ross, P. M. Post, J. Wilson, J. H. Read.

THE PARKINSON CASE.—The Parkinson case was argued yesterday afternoon, Mr. Varian closing for the Government at 5 o'clock. It was then agreed to submit the case on briefs, and the Court gave Varian twenty and Clarke fifteen days to file briefs. Judge Sawyer will render his decision sometime in the latter part of April.

LECTURE.—Miss Solter, a Danish lady, will deliver a carefully compiled lecture on the life and character of Swedenborg, the Seer, at Theater Hall on Sunday evening next. The subject is interesting and will be well handled.

REFORM CLUB.—A business meeting of the Reform Club will be held this evening at the club rooms at half past 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will come up for consideration.

CAPT. JACK.—Jack Crawford, the post scout, will open in Carson with a first-class company next week.

WE CAN'T TALK

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker effect the enamel, no species of decay infest the dental bone, if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.

NOTICE.

All parties holding bills against Frank Boskowitz will present them for payment on or before the First day of April, and all parties indebted will call and pay at the same time without further notice.

MUSICAL.—Miss Lizzie Davis, of Virginia City, teacher of the violin, comes to Carson every Monday and remains until Wednesday. Adults or children wishing to become rapid and correct performers on the violin, and to acquire a profound knowledge of musical time and to read readily, also generally musical theory can get all necessary information as to terms etc., by inquiring of C. A. Marston, photographer, or at the Arlington House. Lessons in dancing given by Brown & Davis at Arlington Hall every Tuesday from 11 A.M. till 9 P. M. Social every night after dancing school.

A DRY GOODS DREAM.—A woman who goes into M. Cohn's emporium drifts off into a dream of rare and beautiful feminine finery. She sees the best product of foreign looms piled up on the counters, laces, draperies, illusions and elegant toilette materials, such as only the rarest skill can produce and which women of taste admire. The secret of the success of this house lies in the fact that M. Cohn knows how to select the best and is never imposed upon by the eastern houses who work off their inferior goods on inexperienced persons.

ATTENTION!—The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. Dr. Howe's celebrated rheumatism, neuralgia and toothache cures. Would you rather suffer the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothache medicine? Mother should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little sweetened water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not cauterize, and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists.

PROFESSOR LANGER'S MUSIC CLASS.—Prof. Langer, the well known leader of Piper's Orchestra, has started a music class in Carson. He has already received a number of scholars from the best families in the city, and his thorough methods of instruction give the best of satisfaction. He gives vocal and instrumental instructions and teaches on the piano and violin. He will give lessons on Wednesday of each week. Orders can be left at the APPEAL office.
